5:00p – Whenever!

Join your SH3 Kennel for Hashy Hour this Friday at:

Moon Temple:

“This is an iconic Chinese-themed dive with stiff drinks, snappy service, and surprisingly well-executed Chinese dishes. Hard drinkers and colorful characters line the kitschy barroom, home to a fabulous metal-and-classic-rock jukebox. Happy hour is from 4p to 6p, serving shockingly stiff wells.”

This place is a TOTAL DIVE BAR, and is absolutely awesome. Rituals at the original Temple of the Moon in ancient China involved bloody animal sacrifices, and you might wonder if the practice continues here. This place hasn't been renovated since 1967. The drinks are CHEAP AND STRONG. The food is Americanized Chinese: hot, greasy, and plenty of it. Johnny, the bartender, pours the booze into your cup like he was hooking up his best friend. That tall dark-haired woman sitting in the corner and making eyes at you? NOT a woma—ah, nevermind, hurry up and go buy her a drink you handsome hasher, you!
