

Tacoma Run 602 & Full Moon 143

Hash Trash

Tacoma Runs in Tacoma!

Dateline Tacoma, October 3rd, 2009. Yes, indeed the Full Moon caused all kinds of plate tectonic shifts creating a joint Tacoma/Full Moon run to actually take place in Tacoma and generating a 3.0 on the Shigcter scale. Trail started at Owen's Beach in Point Defiance Park, hared by Anal Intruder and James Brown. Not ever having been to this park did not stop them from driving their hungover asses to our town and laying the shiggier trail we've seen in a while.

I believe their motto was "kill them with kindness". Kindness - trail was only 2.5 miles. Kill Them - it was sheer, muscle cramping, hard scrabbling cliffs up and down and up and down again. Kindness - 4 beer/alcohol stops. Kill Them - Beer was luke cold PBR with a chaser of Rurplemintz. They mixed the trail with love and made the hurtin' feel good!

Hahsers Did Stuff & A Naming

16 hashers gathered on the windy shore. Cosmo was delighted to see a wedding reception in progress, figuring bridesmaids as an easy get. 2 new transplants, Crazy Ed and Kumrad joined us - Ed stating he was riding his bike because he doesn't run anymore. This resulted in Ed carrying his heavy bike up and down the cliffs and Kumrad drinking for being chivalrous and helping him. Tight Sticky was heard to exclaim "now everything is going to get all dirty". Dirty Mother F*cker was momentarily delighted as he thought everyONE was going to get Dirty. Sugar Lips and Wanks really did get dirty tails on trail by doing more sliding than running. FC got to do a down-down to make up for missed beer on trail and Boy Toy got to drink for missing trail and coming in DFL. Tequila Tony was caught honoring and (offhering) Just Mandy scampering down the slopes. Ufa Kahlua and Safe Sex were guilty of something, I've just drank those brain cells away. And then there was just Gary. Apparently Gary has been lurking in the hash background for a while and has managed to escape naming. What do you name a nurse anesthetist who enjoys traveling to the Philippines? Plays with Youth in Asia of course! And so we were off to the Goldfish Tavern where we were joined by Varsity Blows and had many a tasty microbrew and some truly bad dive bar food. Kill them with Kindness, a fitting end. On On, Wanks with Wolves.
